PS

“ Irene was my husband, Burkhard Scheper's cousin. She lovingly called me after his death. and I remember her reaching out to me at the time of my fathers death. She was a loving and caring soul who touched many lives. She will be so missed by me and my sons, Eric and Scott. Our love to all the family. I will miss her newsy Christmas letters. She always kept in touch.

“ A beautiful soul. To many years ago to admit, when I was in high school and my own dear mother was taking college courses to become a nurse, I spent the better part of almost three years basically spending all my time at the Dombroski home. And a home it was! I was accepted, included, and loved by all the family, but especially Mrs. D! Years later, I would show up on the doorstep every four or five years and we would spend a couple hours playing catch-up. I looked forward to those talks and enjoyed the surprised but heartfelt welcome I got when she answered the door! Thank you for allowing me a small place in your heart. Many of my fondest memories are from times spent on Kemp St. Thank you Diane (and Tom) for sharing.
