“ To Nancy, Gloria, and grandchildren. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Your grandma and mother was a very special lady who touched all of our lives in many unique ways. I enjoyed many interesting and insightful conversations over the years. Additionally, her Grandmasisms and catch words like, "and how" and "you betcha" are words that bring a smile to my face. Also, our road trip with Monique, Autumn and myself to Tahquamenon Falls and the rare beer we shared along the way are special memories that I will cherish. It was a privledge to meet, be loved and become a relative to to such a sharp, classy, non judgemental and caring lady. She will be forever missed by many.

“ Dear Gazan Family, I wanted to write and express my deepest condolences for your loss of Irene. Loosing someone we love is definitely one of the hardest things a human being can experience. Something that has always brought me comfort when facing the death of someone I love is the promise at Revelation 21:4, there it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Just imagine a time when all of your loved ones will once again be with you, and you will no longer have any reason to cry; that truly is a beautiful promise we can look forward to. I hope this message is able to give you a small amount of comfort at this trying time. Sincerely, Harriet

“ I loved having tea with you and talking about how you and Grandpa met. I loved that you always wanted to look your best, a good lipstick is key and you wore it well:! Thank you for hanging in for our long convos over the past months, an hour just goes by too fast! Maybe Grandpa was reaching for you like Amelia was reaching to Jake, whatever the reason God welcomed you and Grandpa has been waiting patiently. I know you are in a better place. For me there is much solace in knowing Grandpa and you will be looking over us

“ What a wonderful woman! You've never had the best home baked apple pie until you've tasted Irene's recipe. She never forgot my Birthday with a card and a check. I'm planting two evergreen trees in her memory one at her beloved "Fallen Pines" near Mackinaw City and one near the lake at "Almost Paradise" in Florida. Irene, say hi to both Georges, Rose and give Colette a big hug and a kiss for me. Love, your handyman.
