“ Aunt Irene is a great connection to the old Polish Detroit, and to my grandmother, who I never really knew. The junkyard, the pierogi, that chubby dog, and always being called "dear" are the memories of a great character, and a wonderful lady. I have no doubt that she and Uncle Frank are dancing a polka!

“ Grandma Tarnacki, You meant so much to my children and I. Thanks for always sharing so much love and friendship with us. I will never forget singing Polish songs, making "grandma's jello treat", and spending every Halloween visiting Grandma and Grandpa Tarnacki. You always said us Taurus women were stubborn and tough, but you were the kindest and sweetest Grandma I know. Love you!
