“ I first meet Irv at Shelby Nursing Center when he was in the assisted living section. My mother was there at the same time. What a wonderful man and friend to me and my mom and all the other residents there. We had many fun times playing games, card, luncheons and everything else. We also meet lovely Carol. Irv spent many hours with my mom while she was in hospice and even prayed with the other ladies when my mom died. He also was at my mom's funeral and the luncheon. It was a pleasure to know him. He was a gem. I would have been at the service for him but we had this awful snow storm. My thoughts and prayers are with you now.
