“ I met Jackie down at the Fairways pool and got to know her better because of the "spa" she suggested we organize at the Fairways Condo. She and my late husband, Dan, became fast friends and I know they are both enjoying their freedom from earthly limitations and keeping watch over those of us left behind. I miss her dearly and the only thing that helps me is knowing she is not suffering any longer. She was tiny in stature, yet she was huge in heart and spirit and is greatly loved.

“ Mark, Diane & Debbie, I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mom. I hold fond memories of times with her while we were all growing up....especially when she would haul all of us out to Stony Creek for a day at the beach....also trips to Dodo's house for fun at Walnut Lake. Epic!!! Good times, indeed!! Deepest condolences & love to all, Ken Dawley
