“ Only knew Jack the last five years as he was my “main man” on the farm. Kinda ran everything. He was a good man and his devotion to his mom was exemplary. Gonna miss the barn chats over many subjects. Hope where he’s gone has ponies and hay. RIP, Jack

“ Jackie was the best. Too many good and funny memories to recall, but the times we spent on Harsens Island were my favorite. He was a good man who loved his family. God bless Jackie you are truly home now. T❤️

“ Should mention that my mother, aunt Virginia's sister, loved Bjack very much. Always mentioned him in. Talking about the family, as being so sweet, writing to get a lot. She always answered the letters. She passed 5 years ago, but wanted to post this for her.

We remember Jack well. He came to our church since it was close. He was attentive, quick to smile and laugh and thought before he spoke. Jack received prayer for his illness the last time he was with us. He also helped care for his Mom. RIP Jack. Alex Silva

“ I remember a lot about Jack in earlier years, but guess the most vivid was when he was born. The family lived on Island 40 in Arkansas. It is or was a cutoff from the Mississippi river. I was sent over to help my aunt Virginia when she had him, and of course, being 10 I was a HUGE help..haha...but I tried. A BIG storm came and flooded the area, and my uncle Leroy got a boat and loaded us all in it and we all floated down to the river...remember Jack was an infant. What an experience! Ill always remember that little baby and going down to river. Oh, did I mention it was night...very dark! Love you, Jack. RIP

“ Jack was the best babysitter. My favorite memory and there is so many, was my mom came home from work and we had ducked taped Jack to a chair. Or the one time he took us over to Uncle Bill's house and we took all the bottles and cans cashed them in and bought soda and candy. Uncle Jack will never be forgotten by me. RIP Love you Carolyn

“ I will always remember that Smile , Smerk on your face!

Jack, We had some serious Laughs back in the day!

You did what your Dad new you would do, when taking care of Your MOM.

So Glad I got to see you at Bill and Kens Last.

Love ya Jack! Rest in Peace.
