“ Dear Galvan family, I am so very sorry for your great loss. Although I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Jackie personally, my heart breaks for your family. May you look to our loving God for comfort and strength as He assures us of a time when soon we will be reunited with our loved ones. John 5:28, 29. Your family is in my prayers.

“ Cindy, Dave & Davey ~ I know the last several years have been difficult ones for you all. I only hope that knowing Jacklin will not experience the pain and struggles that she had, will help ease your pain. Everyone who has children can relate to how you must be feeling, so just know you are not alone. God does not want you to suffer anymore either, so like all your other friends, we extend our offer of friendship to your family. We are in a unique position, being your neighbors - so again, if you need someone to talk to or help you out in any way we will be more than happy to help. We will be checking in on you! Hopefully, some day Isaiah and Jaydin will know that their Mom was a sweet and kind woman. May Jacklin rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus and I know he will surround your family with His love!

“ Cindy, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your lovely daughter Jacklin. I never had the pleasure of meeting her but I know this is almost unbearable for you and your family. She is at peace now and will never again be subjected to loneliness or pain. God bless you and your family. Larry Tuscany

“ Im soo sorry for your loss. Jackie was the was one of the kindest strongest girls I know. She was so beautiful,smart and always trying to help people. She will always stay i my heart and mind forever. I hope you can stay strong too. She would want you to be. Always remember her as that laughing,smiling,happy,optimistic wonderful girl she was. No one could ever take her place, she was one of kind. She has left two beautiful children behind. At least was can see that beautiful smile in those beautiful children. She was loved by so many and if love could have saved her she would have lived forever. Jackie, You'll truly be missed forever and always. I love you. Cindy and family, you know where to find me if you need anything.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I pray you receive the peace, comfort, & strength needed through this. Jackie, I wish we could go back to a Friday night in high school and hang out around my bonfire bit with everyone like we used too. I'll have those memories of all the good times we shared. I love you and miss you. RIP â?; XXXOOO

“ Dear Cindy and Family, Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to all of you. Jacklin was such a beautiful young lady. We still remember her coming over here with you and she was such a sweetheart. Kristene and Heather used to enjoy babysitting her when she was a little girl. Jacklin was very blessed in her life to have you as her Mom. We pray that God will help you through this very difficult time. God Bless you all. Love, Helene and Tom Billock

“ Dear Galvin family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Jacklin Galvin. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest. Mrs. Higgins
