“ Jake and I grew close working on projects together at ERG. We spent many days in the field together. A few times, we made the 4-hour long trip to Hoosier, Indiana to collect samples and such. We would talk about what we did the night before or the weekend before, what we had coming up, and of course, our cats. He was always a joy to talk to, and he actually cared about how I was doing and probably more so, how my cats were doing! Such a cat lover.

Last year, I had him over with other field staff for a game night. He was the first to arrive, and we were excited to play a 2-player game together before others got there. I believe we played Tinderblox, a game kinda like Operation and reverse Jenga mashed together. I ended up winning, but Jake wanted to play again! So, we did, and I won again. But Jake still loved every minute of it, smiling and laughing the whole time.

Just a couple weeks ago, ERG had a company function with dinner, fowling, and axe throwing. Jake and I decided to go 1 v 1 at axe throwing. I had thrown an axe before (not a lot, though, and not for a while). So, Jake asked for a couple pointers. Regardless, I won the round. But Jake hadn't had enough of me! We played another couple of rounds. And he lost again and again. He was getting better, though!

I'm not meaning to brag about winning games. I'm meaning to emphasize how great a sport Jake was. He loved spending time with friends and getting involved in some game. He didn't care much about winning or losing. He truly just wanted to have fun. Jake was such a great friend and co-worker, and he will be greatly missed.

“ Our hearts are saddened, you are truly going to be missed. You were a big part of my sons life growing up together. You, Josh and my son Michael shared so many cherished memories, sleepovers, family get togethers, and lots of laughs. Rest in peace Jacob, give grandma and grandpa a hugs for us. May God hold you close to his heart 🙏❤️

“ So sad when we heard this news. Jacob you were a mom’s dream of the type of kid you would want your son to have for a friend, kind, respectful and smart. I’m thankful for all the times you shared at our home with Alex and even my girls. Whether playing board games or countless hours on Xbox you always welcomed Hannah or Chelsea to join in. And Jacob, you were so quiet I hardly knew if you were still over, so I do an occasional call out. The times when Alex would go to your house after school or on the weekends, we felt such a comfort knowing that your parents shared the same values and knew he was at a loving home and you had a brother Josh (a bonus friend for Alex); it was boy heaven. Josh you will forever be remember and missed, not only by your family and friends, but all those hearts you touched. I will pray for God to help your mom,dad and Josh get through those hard days ahead where your presence of loss will be deeply felt❤️

“ Jake, my brother and partner-in-crime, I'm going to miss you deeply. From you cursing me during our garage workouts (but always coming back), to the Coheed and Cambria concerts, to the hundreds of hours we spent laughing, scheming, and heisting in Dungeons and Dragons, there was nobody like you. Thanks for the laughs, the advice, and your friendship over the years. I love you, brother.

“ A best friend for the ages, he left an indelible mark on my life. I cherish the countless hours spent at the Henning's house, where the warmth and camaraderie shared with Jacob and his brother Josh helped shape the person I am today. I am deeply honored to have been part of their lives, sharing in moments of joy, growth, and unwavering support. Jacob was someone I could always count on, whether in moments of great significance or the everyday challenges. His passing, and the grief experienced by his family, has deeply saddened me, and I remain here to offer them my love and support as we remember the remarkable person Jacob was.
