“ I will never forget the time we all sat on that ping pong table in the basement of the St. Clair Shores house! I think it held out for all of 10 seconds before it cracked in half and everyone who had been sitting landed on the basement floor! Jackie came down and was NOT pleased, but she eventually laughed because it was so funny! She was a great lady, never spoke an unkind word. I loved our Friday night Pinochle games when I worked in Sterling Heights. Jackie was a fine card player and laughed at our antics! I will miss her gentle kind smile, good humor and her generosity. Rest In Peace with Spunky Sue!
