“ This is my sweet and beautiful mother--at age 20 most likely. Two months ago she passed away and we had to fly out to Michigan to say goodbye. She was funny, gentle and my confidant when I was younger--always on my side. She had a great sense of humor and back in my high school days we would laugh and make snide comments while watching ridiculous soap operas together. She took me to church and instilled a love and respect for the Lord, and passed down her love of animals. I miss her terribly. What I do know is that it's no mistake that lately the sunsets around here have been more colorful and intense, the stars shine more radiantly...and I have a responsibility to live bigger, brighter and more fearlessly. She is with my Dad now in heaven and what's wonderful is that I now feel they are always with me. They are perfect, young again -- guarding and guiding me.

“ Condolences to the family. I didn't know your loved one, but just wanted to share some comfort with you. God cares for you, mentioned at I Peter 5:7. After Armageddon, God will bring an end to death, and will resurrect our dead loved ones to this earth, which will be a paradise then. Notice what Revelation 21: 4 says, "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor pain nor outcry be anymore..." May this comfort you.
