“ To the family of Jacqueline Medici: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ Dear Carol, Mark and Keith, we were so sad to hear of the passing of your dear mom. I walked down Boston to share the sad news with the neighbors and sat with Shirley looking at your house and talked of all the good times , with the Calcaterras, Krons, Wilson's, our Wieske clan and many other great neighbors, playing kick the can, climbing that great tree in your front yard.....We will always share that childhood connection, and we know how sad it is to say goodbye to our dear parents. They shared good friendships on Boston. We so very much regret that we were unable to pay respects to you in person, but please know that we are sending each of you prayers and hugs during this most difficult time. We remember your mom as a kind lady with a constant smile. With our deepest sympathy, xo. Sheila (Raymo) and Kathy(oro sey)Wieske

“ I remember what a good cook she was and the house always filled with the aromas of her wonderful dishes. I lived across the street and she saw me on the sidewalk one day and came out and said she wanted to introduce me to her girl Carol and that started a friendship that has lasted over 50 years. She was energetic and kept up with all the local neighborhood events. I remember back in the late 50's the latest diet craze was the pineapple and cottage cheese diet and I remember her doing that and my thinking how could she resist her own good dishes that she cooked. My sincerest sympathy to the family. I will always remember the Medici household fondly as I always felt welcome there. Nancy Mead Germann

“ To all the Medici family but especially Carol-- You are in my thoughts and prayers today as you come to terms with the passing of your mom. I actually met her many years ago when you lived in Romeo. You introduced her and then we sat down together and shared conversation and a mid day sweet in your Victorian dining room! A lovely memory....I am sure once you get past the pang of your loss, you will have many of those pleasant memories to cheer you. God bless the Medici family as they move forward.
