“ To My Loving Father: You have finally been released of that devastating disease and put into the arms of our Father. May God take you into His arms and watch over you now. I know you are now with your loving sisters and your wonderful mom, which I know has made you very happy. I love you dad and can only hope you will watch over me and guide me through the rest of my years. I want to thank you for all the wonderful Christmas mornings we had as a family. They meant so much to me! Thank you for teaching me bowling, pool, jarts & even horseshoes. Thank you for the years at the cottage.. everytime I fish, I think of those years. You and I had some good fun together!! And I am sure you will have a puzzle waiting on a table for me to "finish"... just make sure you leave me the last piece - haha! I think of you often and know we will be together again. With my deepest love, your youngest daughter - Barb

“ Aunt Elaine, I am so incredibly saddened to hear of Uncle Buddy's passing, but as it was for my Mom, I know in many ways it was a release. Though we are far apart, I love you all still and absolutely adored my Uncle Buddy. I loved to hear the stories Mom told of him and Lillian and some of the mischief they got into, but remember that she and Lillian always spoke almost reverently of "Buddy", their wonderful brother who must have been a knight in shining armor to the girls and to their mother, who I see in his face in the later pictures of him. God bless you all for the long and sad journey these last years have been for him. I am hoping that he and Mom and Lillian and maybe even Ruth are all holding hands and laughing together in Heaven today. Mom would at times speak his name the last couple of years, though her remembrances were small, but it always brough a smile to her face in her last years. It is good that she is with him now. Love to all of you - Barb, Gary, Dennis, Pat, Aunt Elaine - you served him well and made him proud. Lisa, Rob, and Noah daughter, son-in-law and grandson of Virginia and Marvin

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Uncle Buddy and all of you were very special to our family. Especially to me, since I gave my son his exact name. I spoke to Dad tonight to let him know that Uncle Buddy had passed, and I went online to try to find a phone number. I found one for Pat & Tony, and he was going to try to call. The number he had for Barb was no good. Please email me so we can get back in contact with the family. Again, our thoughts are with the family.
