“ Mr Chamberlin was truly a special man. My childhood memories of him will forever be in my heart. Whenever I think of him...I always picture him cracking jokes, laughing and smiling....and who can ever forget the spectacular doll house he constructed for me when I was a little girl.....hopefully when I pass it down to my daughter she will appreciate the craftsmanship and love that went into making the doll house. Forever in my heart!

“ We have fond memories of Jim: The time he helped me cut down a dead bush, the wonderful fireside potluck dinners on his patio and hearty laughs with him and Phyllis. We will miss our beloved neighbor. We live across the street @ 2711.

“ I will truly miss you. I enjoyed the years i worked with you at Agree's and at JGA. I'll miss the lunches we shared in the past few years and always regret we didn't do it more often. Thank you for everything you taught me, you were a mentor and friend.
