“ No one at Mariners' Church can ever forget the distinguished looking, regal gentleman with the gorgeous head of white hair. When he ushered, he always greeted people with a cheerful smile as they entered and exited the nave. Mr. Deacon, as I always referred to him, loved to talk about flying. I shall miss him dearly. Though he is at peace, I extend my sincerest condolences to the Deacon family. May God bring you comfort and shower you with His everlasting grace.
