“ I was so saddened to hear of Jim’s passing. He was such a dear friend to my parents, and I always appreciated the warmth and loyalty he brought into their lives. He truly embodied the quiet strength and faithfulness described in his obituary. He had such a spark - kind, gracious, and genuinely interested in others. I will always remember his warm smile and the gentle way he carried himself. Sending love and peace to Louise. ~ Susan Gardiner Farah

“ Jim was an active member of the men’s chorus at Fox Run. That’s how I got to know Jim as the always upbeat, smiling friend that he was. He’s missed here at Fox Run! Safe ~ Home ~ Jim

“ Jim was a gentleman's gentleman. I never heard him offer a harsh word to anyone and was always able to help anyone he could. He was one of the last remaining King's Men Male Choir members that we had for many years at FPCRO and I feel very blessed to have known him. I would like to think that his buddy Francis was waiting for him and they are singing together again. Love to Louise.

“ Jim was a very active, caring member of the Clarkston Area Optimist Club for many years. His smile, wit, many interesting stories, bowties and laughter were always welcome and entertaining. Rest in peace Jim. We all love you.
