“ Dear family, We have such heavy hearts at the loss of our beloved Uncle and friend. There are way too many happy memories to list here. And, while we cannot imagine our life without him in it...we absolutely know that Uncle Jim IS great as he is in the presence of our blessed Savior. He is whole, without pain, and is watching down on his family...especially Lily. We love you and can't wait to see you.

“ Today, there is grief and tears of sadness. Today, there will also be smiles and laughter as family and friends tell stories of humor and good times with your dad. It's my wish, your sadness will be eased as everyone celebrates his life. I hope he often comes to visit Lilly in her dreams and I know he will always be in your heart.

“ The memories of our wonderful times together will stay with us forever! I remember one of our first times together - playing Trivia Pursuit and JP screaming "A", "A", and no one listening! Our road trips 3 hour tours, holidays and vacations together, & our house boat trip! Oh, what memories! I'll miss you Jimbo!

“ Dearest family....we share in your grief in the loss of Boppa Jim as my kids loved to call him. Such a wonderful, loving, kind and funny man taken far too soon. I will miss seeing him drive by with Rocky in the front seat just taking him out for a drive. I will miss his grin and his sense of humor and the way he laughed. I will miss getting text messages from him about when happy hour is supposed to be and how he will start without me. I will miss our bartending conversations and how he tells me I never add enough salt and to put another dab in. So many great memories that bring tears to the eyes but will serve as a warm reminder his mark upon mine and my family's lives. Sending you heartfelt hugs and tons of emotional support while you are taking Jim home one last time. Heaven has a new and beautiful Angel looking over us all. God Bless. David, Tricia, Kristen, Zane and Avery and all our 4 legged critters
