“ Ever since I was a little boy, Tony was that giant man down the street that came and helped my father plumb the half bath in the basement, build a garage, and anything else that neighbors do for friends on the street. Tony was always fun, funny, kind and warm. Just last month, he and Joan made a special effort to attend my Mother's funeral. Tony moved slow, but he still gave me a hug that would crush an elephant. And as always the kindest words. I know that he will be deeply missed by his entire family. But he taught his children well and they will carry forward all those wonderful traits that Tony mastered. My thoughts and prayers to all the Mecoli family and especially to Joan. God Bless.

“ Jackie and I want to extend our condolences to Joan and all the kids. He was a wonderful person and a great inspiration when I was growing up. Tony and Joan had just come to my mom's funeral, Annabelle Vander Eyk on Dec 9, 2009. I had a chance to talk to him for a few minutes. Most of the people I knew growing up on Phillips are gone now. May Tony find peace in the afterlife and our best to Joan and all the kids I knew growing up.

“ Joan and the kids as well as all of the neighbors on Phillips Street will miss a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and neighbor. Tony was a perfect example of what a family man is and should be. Our condolences to all.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Jan, Kevin, Niki, and Alayna Klco with whom we are well acquainted, as well as the entire Mecoli family. While we never knew Mr. Mecoli, we have known his daughter, Jan Klco, for many years and know that James must have been a fabulous father who instilled wonderful values in his children. We send our heartfelt sympathy to the Mecoli family.
