“ Oh my goodness what can we say...We as families have been through the best of times and the worst of times...but most of all we were there together. Watching the kids grow up together was the best. They would go to church with my Mom on Sunday mornings and when asked about Church Jimmy always said 'the breakfast was good' and the 'hot chocolate was even better'. Boy time does fly. Before we knew it Jimmy and Lisa were going off to the Prom together as friends so they could have more fun that way!!! Or was it so they could do whatever they wanted and neither would be able to tell on each other. Before any of us knew it they grew up. Destiny came, Lisa married and through everything they still remained friends. And for all of us that know them that was like a normal person climbing Mt. Everest without training for it. Jimmy was a very special person, he never forgot who and what was important in life. As sick as Jimmy was, he would wait for everyone to leave the house and walk around the block for ice tea, maybe cookies if any were made or just to hang out and then sneek back home like he never left the house. One of his last trips over he brought Destiny with him. She does take after her Daddy as her first stop was at the cookie jar. Jimmy will be deeply missed but He will never be forgotten, As he has left alot of good memories with us. I'd just like to thank his family for sharing him with us through the years. We Love you all Rick, Ginny and kids

“ I remember our 3 am meets in the Timken kitchen making Grilled Cheese, Mac N Cheese, cereal and eating pickles. Then me, you and Kristie sittin in front of the TV watchin Freddy Kruger all night long, scaring ourselves stupid. We'd sleep all day then do it all over again. I remember the time you came and stayed with us in Imlay City. When you tried fixing the lawn mower was the best. You broke the blade and told me not to tell... well until now I never told a soul. I miss you Jimmy. I'll never forget the way you looked after us all. Especially Kristie. I can't wait until we meet again. I love you.

“ Our words cannot even begin to express how sorry we are for the tragedy that your family is going through. Jimmy was a great guy who did not deserve to get this horrible disease, and the world is not going to be the same without him in it. You are in our prayers and please let us know if there is anything that we can do to help you. God bless you.

“ God Bless your family during this time. As hard as losing your child is, try to remember all of the good times and cherish them, Jimmy is truly a special person. Keep your faith in God as he will always be there to help you through. If you need anything, even just to talk, please call me. We have been friends a long time, even though we always haven't stayed in contact, and Meda you are a great person and a wonderful friend and mother. Jimmy will be watching down on you and I know he feels truly blessed to have you as his Mom.
