“ Jim was my life for over 5 years. We had some great experiences through the ups and downs of our relationship. Even though we were no longer together we maintained a strong friendship till the end. I am very sorry for the loss of a great person that I will miss very much. Jim was an awesome person who always kept you entertained. He knew exactly how to make you laugh. Jim was an amazing father to his children and many times we talked of their achievements and what was ahead for them in the future. Justin and Bailey will be in my thoughts and prayers-- God bless you! I have never forgotten you both. Becca

“ Marcum Family: Jim was a good friend of mine. Ginger and I were best friends in High School and lost touch when they moved to Florida. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you or the family, sorry that I am so far away! You are in my thoughts!
