“ Fall, 1991 was the year we met Uncle James Donald Schell when we were brand new immigrants. We were at first skeptical and suspicious of all our American neighbors. However, Uncle Jim changed all that. No judgment just pure kindness. Our first very cold Michigan winter when I was very pregnant with my first child, he took it upon himself to keep my driveway always shoveled. He somehow knew my husband was overseas somewhere and I needed help. Never, once did he expected anything in return. Over the years, we grew very close and I even ended up being the God Mother of his little girl Katie Schell. We were almost in Heaven when we enjoyed each other’s company before we had to move away. We treasure all the full “FIVE” years our families spent time together. Uncle Jim, you were our first American Family that we loved and trusted. So long!!! Till we meet again. You will be in our Chiu’s heart forever!!!! ❤️
