“ The loss of "Mr Jim" is truly sad. My children and I have so many great memories of him. From the extreme Christmas decorating to the sage advise that he gave, he will be missed. Countless evenings, I've had wine with Jo and jokes with Jim. He always gave his everything.

“ Good bye my dear brother. You shall be sorely missed. I can't help but recall you flying down here to Alabama to wire my hunting cabin for me. Then again that is how you always have been. Always lending a hand when asked. Could not have asked for a more loving friend much less a brother.

“ I remember the evening all us ABCers were at your home Jo.....Jim came up from his ManCave to say "Hello" to all of us! Somehow and someway the conversation about the Detroit Riots came up and we learned Jim had been there - helping "fix things". The news on the radio back in the late 70's on this were nothing compared to Jim's experiences and all he shared with us that night. I think it was the first time EVER there was silence in the room when the ABC group was together.....we were listening to a hero....our Jim. Hugging you...feel it?
