“ This has been a very hard year loosing two brothers in less than a year has been very hard to deal with. I can only cling to the memories of time with Jim and the happy sweet and special times we've shared over the years. We are all so lucky and ever indebted to my sweet Wendy. I'll never be able to show how much you mean to me not only for loving Jim but for all the care you gave him. He has suffered for so long and now he's at pease and can rest. I have lost another piece of my heart but I will have memories to cherish I love you little brother and will miss you forever. Rest in love and peace your big sis Linda
