“ Dear Maryann, Cassidy, Cooper, and Jim, We are praying for you and sharing in your loss. Jim was a tender soul with a kind, loving and gentle spirit. He will be missed, and treasured in our memories. God's work is often mysterious and hard to accept in the short term, but time unfolds greater understanding, acceptance, and joy. Jim is home and now awaits his loved ones to join him in eternal life. Cherish the memories and keep talking about the great man that Jim was. Peace.

“ *MaryAnn, Jim, Cooper, and Cassidy, Mr. Skaggs always had a smile and a quietness about him, kind and gentle. I will miss him, especially at the fish fry table selling tickets! “ Dear Mary Ann, Jim, Cooper, Cassidy, Nancy and all, How sad we all are as we experience the passing of your dear Husband, Dad and Grandpa, brother and good friend! Our lives are changed forever by his death and we were changed and blessed by his life with us here. You, in a special way, are in my prayer. I know I speak for so many here at the Shrine Parish. We will miss Jim's steady, faithful, dedicated presence, his reliable work, his gentle ways and his quiet, dry humor always accompanied with a great smile. May peace and love surround you always, and may Jim's presence always be near. Sister Noreen Ellison, SC

“ Words cannot express the deep sadness we all feel at this moment. The loss of such a kind and gentle soul will stay with us forever. Jim will always be in our hearts. I keep telling myself that God has a plan and only He knows when it is time for one of us to come Home to Him. Jim is in the warm and loving embrace of our heavenly Father now. How amazing that must be for him! As much as it hurts to let him go, through our faith we know that he is in a much better place and he will be waiting for all his family and friends to join him one day. The Shrine office will never be the same without Jim there. And anyone who ever received a birthday card, a congratulations card, etc. signed by Jim, you will know why I am ending this post with these two words: "Best Wishes." I am certain Jim is watching over us thinking those exact words! May God bless him and the entire Skaggs family.
