“ My favorite memory is every Sunday uncle Jim and aunt Elvira would take me and Sally to church. We always had a new flavor of bubble gum we would be constantly chewing our gum and blowing bubbles all the way to church. Uncle Jim was in charge of the Sunday school program at Trinity he was very creative and loved arts and crafts he worked well with children he had a child like personality himself. Aunt Elvera and uncle Jim spent many hours cooking the best deserts ever they always had goodies they shared with everyone. They always made sure gram had a way to get to the store. I miss the good old days. Uncle Jim and aunt Elvera were the salt of the earth kind of people. They are rare and beautiful people. You will be missed. Love you all and I am sending my love and prayers.
