“ Dad, I will miss your constant smile and laughter, all the fun we have when together, mystery trips, and so much more. My heart is aching. I know that with time the harshness of this moment will soften and the tears will lessen, but right now in this moment my heart doesn't think that will be possible. I Love You Daddy! I know you are watching over us from heaven just as you always did here on earth. You are the Best Ever! Love you, Your # 1 "Favorite Daughter"

“ The world has lost yet another generous kind gentle soul. His wonderful smile and laughter has been silenced for awhile but I am sure we will meet again in a much better place. We shared some really fun times thru our many years of friendship and those great memories will never be erased or far from our thoughts. Juanita remember the good times we shared. We were fortunate to be blessed with many of them thru the years. He will be missed. Bob & Joanne Treece

“ Juanita, Tim, Sue, Sandy, Connie - Throughout 45 years of knowing Jim, he always treated me the same - and always seemed happy to see me and my family. He was truly one of the good guys. I often tell the story of how he tried to teach me at 17 how to ride a motorcycle remember the Zundapp? in your backyard on Berwyn. He only laughed and shook his head when I drove it through your fence! A good, good guy. The originator of the "Mystery Trip." I know you will miss him, but he'll be guiding you every step of the way. Love and prayers....

“ Oh My... there are not words to say how sad it is for you Juanita as wife, to go thru this deep sorrow. Nobody has the words.. I know.. I have been in your shoes...raw inside.. ...but as time goes by.. the brain fog will leave and you will feel like living again... As wives we will all walk this road someday.. it's so tuff and it's not easy, nor does it feel right to be this devistated by the loss of your partner/husband/friend/your debator/your right arm..it's been 10 months since I lost my husband, Bud...and the tears still fall, which I'm told the more you cry the more you heal... "Dear Lord, This is so hard ...Please keep me from falling..Amen...Istill say it We will see them again... for sure. Love YOU... all Melinda
