“ When my sister moved next door to your family, Jim was the first person I met and he introduced me to Abby.

I enjoyed our chats at the fence, him smiling at the things his kids and grandkids did, and how he was always willing to help out. He let my sister borrow tools for her various projects, sent Matt over when we locked ourselves out, and helped make sure Luca's ninja course stayed up between the trees.

Jim was a great guy and I am sorry for your loss. I hope you find comfort in your memories.

“ What a wonderful neighbor! Many short visits over the years, standing in the driveway or sitting on the back patio. Or when Jim would help me with something I couldn't do alone, like pushing my tractor back into the garage when it broke down. Truly liked helping anyone who asked. My heart goes out to Vicky and the kids. May your memories bring comfort and a smile. Bless you all. Judy ❤️
