“ Dear Chris & Tom, Vince and your whole family, I was very sorry to read of your dad's passing in the news today. Since he walked so closely with the Lord in this life, I'm sure it was just a little hop to the other side, where he'll keep on walking with Jesus in true peace and lasting joy. But I know how hard it is to lose a parent. God bless you with His comfort in this difficult time. Jeannine Lorenger in Bay City

“ Peter & Mary Jo Albert, We wanted to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the Wyss family. We remember Jim from Shrine. We had met him, Joan, too, at the beginning of our relationship, almost 20 years ago! He was kind, friendly. He made an impression on us. He was an example of a Godly, family man. You could tell he loved his life!

“ Dear Wyss family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one James Wyss. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
