“ I worked with Jay for many years. Jay was a pleasure to work with. Jay always had a joke or some hilarious comment to make at any given time. Even after he retired Jay would call me and end the conversation with a joke. My deepest sympathy for your loss.

“ J. was the coolest man I ever worked with. He wore his shirt collar up, had a glide in his stride, with many words of comical wisdom. I once told him I could not imagine him having any enemies, he laughed and responded, you would be surprised. I worked with J. for almost 30 years, and was deeply saddened, by his passing. May GOD comfort all his family and loved ones, as he will truly be missed.
