

Jane Dvorak Bracht

September 2, 1963 - May 28, 2023

Jane Dvorak Bracht passed away at her home in Rochester Hills Michigan. She was the youngest of 6 children of John and Adelyne Dvorak, formerly of Romeo, MI, both now deceased. She is survived by her son Alex Bracht of Englewood, CO, a brother James Dvorak of Antioch, TN and four sisters, Jean Dvorak of Brunswick, ME, Patricia Rackyleft of Crossville, TN , Margaret Salsido of Utica, MI, and Elizabeth Lorenz of Plymouth, MI. Jane enjoyed the family reunions that included the younger generation of nieces, nephews, and even a grand niece and nephew.

Jane graduated from Romeo Michigan High School and went on to earn a BS in Communication Studies from Michigan State University. She worked as a technical writer for Blue Cross and later did free-lance editing and writing. "The Dvorak News Network" was a family newsletter that Jane masterminded, using her creative writing and editing skills to solicit, (cojole actually) family members to tell their stories in yearly holiday publications. She enjoyed posting inspirational memes on Facebook and posted that a favorite quote was "Tomorrow can be a wonderful age." Her favorite color was purple, a fact that she would never let you forget-clothes, stuffed animals, paintings, jewelry; she even gifted in purple.

Jane lived alone for the last several years and her cat "Herbie" was her companion and "healer". For a number of years Jane was a prolific abstract acrylic painter, a creative outlet that gave her a feeling of accomplishment. She gifted many of these colorful creations to family and friends. She loved her family and will be greatly missed. A family remembrance will be held on a later date. In lieu of flowers, Jane would like donations to be made to your choice of animal shelter or charity. Memories and condolences can be shared at Sullivan and Son at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com <<http://www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com>>.

I wish I had had a chance to spend time with Jane as an adult. She sounds awesome. I haven't had to experienced a sibling's passing, but I'm sure it would be so sad. Sorry for your loss.
