July 30, 1926 - February 9, 2021

Murawka, Jane Grace (née Knobloch), age 94, passed away February 9, 2021, in Royal Oak, MI.

Jane was the beloved wife of the late Harry Murawka for 69 years; loving mother of Kathleen Murawka, Susan (Charles) Kronk, Gary (Concepcion) Murawka, Jeffery Murawka, and Mary Jane Murawka; proud grandmother of Matthew Kronk, Janee Kronk, Scott Kronk (Jillian), Valerie Murawka, Samantha Murawka, Stephen Murawka, and Daniel Murawka; great-grandmother of Alyna Murawka, Adillyn Murawka, and Liam Kronk; beloved sister of Bernita Fenner.

Jane went to be with her Lord on Tuesday, February 9, 2021. Jane was born and raised in Ferndale in a home her father built. After high school, she took a job at J.L. Hudson's as an assistant buyer. She loved to dance and met her future husband at the Graystone Ballroom. They were married at Shrine of the Little Flower and settled in Royal Oak to raise their family. Jane enjoyed many things: golf, tennis, and crafts; and she crocheted hundreds of lap robes for hospice. She was also a sewing volunteer at Beaumont. She enjoyed travelling with her husband and went on many cruises. When Harry retired from his job, Jane decided she was retiring from the kitchen! They enjoyed many winters in Florida. They were married for 64 years. It was a blessing that she was born and died in homes built by her father.
