My thoughts and prayers to Janet's husband and family. Many memories growing up in Royal Oak knowing the three sister Janet being the oldest and always keeping us in line. The best years of my life and having such a great bond with the Woodward family. Much love. Bonnie Greenough Erwin

We've lived across the street from Bob and Jan for over 30 years. Janet was always kind, considerate, and a terrific neighbor. she would literally give you the shirt off her back. When we had a house fire in 2014, she offered clothes to us as we had to leave the house with almost nothing. We will miss her. Bruce and Vickie Labenz
