Janet L. (nee Boughner) Gray, Born on March 31, 1937 in Belmont, Ohio to the late Cecil W. and Lillie Kirk Boughner, Janet Lou Boughner Gray was the youngest of four children with older siblings including William Kirk Boughner, the late Theda Boughner Tacosik Steadman, and the late Sara Jane Boughner Schrum. As a student in the Belmont school system, she was an avid member of the 4-H Club and a member of the majorette corps. She met the love of her life who went on to be her loving husband of 48 years, the late James P. The two then moved to Sterling Heights, Michigan to grow a family which included sons James Jr. and Bill, as well as daughter Mirinda along with multiple canine children. As a homemaker, Janet spent most of her spare time quilting, sewing, camping, and sharing an unrivaled love for the Christmas holiday season. She loved to cook and bake, passing on her knowledge to younger generations. She also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and her furry friends and family during her lifetime. She was loved by many. “ She was a mother first and foremost, then a grandmother that would go out of her way to try and be at wit a band event or dance event to support her grandchildren. But she also had a lob of going to basketball games. She will be dearly missed by all.

“ My sympathies go out to Janet’s loving daughter Marinda. She was the light of her mother’s life and they loved each other so much. Janet was a wonderful mother and Marinda will always treasure the memories of their special relationship.

“ Mirinda’s loving mother will be sorely missed by her daughter...they loved each other dearly and there is no bond on earth stronger than that of a mother and her daughter. Janet smiles in heaven, knowing her little fur baby, Angel, is safe and loved with Mirinda and Don.

“ Janet was always so kind and generous, she made me feel like family. I will always remember how much she loved to decorate her Christmas trees (plural). I will miss chatting with her at the sewing machine in her son Bill's shop.
