“ Janet was one of the most caring loving Ladies I've ever known. I worked with her for many years and every morning she would say "Joanne you look tired" and I would say "Janet I always look tired". This went on for so many years that it got to be funny and we would laugh about it. The We traveled to Harbor Springs together and just had a wonderful time. She wanted to take me to a breakfast place where she said the pancakes were awesome. They were awesome but cost us $15.00 each plus tip for a pancake with peaches, juice and coffee. We laughed about that so many times but we shared a wonderful memory. I have to add that I gave Janet a little dog named Minni. She loved her Minni and babied her like she would have babied a child. To Janet, Minni was her Baby. I could write so much more but I'll just say I'm going to miss one of the best Friends I've ever known. Rest in peace Dear Lady. When you get to Heaven show them whose Boss.
