“ Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with you as you find peace knowing that very soon sickness, sorrow and even death will be things of the past. Deepest sympathy. Revelation 21:4

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Jason and I had some great times together. We pulled some good pranks during freshman phys. ed. He was a great person, with an uncanny sense of humor. He would do anything, for anyone! He will truly be missed.

“ Jason, was a truly heart first gentleman. Always stood up and out for those who needed help or support . It was a privilege to know and work with him. My heart goes out to his family and especially his Mom whom he thought the world off. God bless you all and we will dearly miss Jason, we already do!

“ Jason was by far one of the best friends I've ever had. He had an amazing sense of humor, a kind soul, and the best friend a person could ask for. He will be greatly missed by all of those who were blessed to have him in his life.

“ Jason the closest thing to a little brother I had. You will be missed dearly. Time spent with you was always a great time. It was a great ride. Really sucks you had to leave us so soon. But I know we will be united in death as we were in life. I love you. J Gaddis
