“ To the Lovelock family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Jason and I shared many good memories. My favorite has to be driving all night to Iowa to pick up Chubs. He loved that dog so much! We recently reconnected and I will forever cherish our last conversations. I will be donating to the Michigan Animal Rescue League in honor of Jason (and Chubs).

“ I was a nervous fourteen year-old when I first met Jason Lovelock. It was 8th grade and Jane Addams and I were fresh out of a private Quaker school in Detroit. It was a very uncomfortable go for a while. Jason welcomed me and helped make a very awkward transition easier for me. We became quick friends and I'm sure that is how most will remember him. I can't recall a more upbeat and positive guy/peer in all my life. Darn good energy in that fellow.

I'll never forget the night Jason and Alec invited me to play Euchre. Not being a card player, I always stayed away. I could never figure that game out but Jason demonstrated real patience with me--to no avail. I still don't have a clue how to play that game but I recall great company.

I just can't say enough about Jason and how much I appreciated our friendship back then.

My thoughts are with his mother, Chris and the rest of his family during this very difficult time.

We have lost a good one.

“ Great, sweet guy and an awesome friend. He taught me to watch and love football at Four Green Fields....though I bet he didn't intend for me to become a Packer fan! Sad loss for everyone life he touched and anyone who never got the chance.

“ Big Jay, who I met three summers ago and instantly became friends with. Such a big-hearted guy that I will miss so very, very much. You boogied down with me at my wedding, were always welcomed at my house, and just a great guy wanting to help train the football players on the field or at the gym. You will be missed by so many!

“ I'm so very sorry for his family and friends. I know him as coach Lovelock and he was a great coach and friend. His greatest gift he has given me is a piece of paper that I still have. He gave me the poem The Man In The Glass. He helped shape the man I am today and I thank him for that. I will miss you and again so sorry to the family.

“ There are never the right words to express ones true feelings when you lose a great friend. Big Jay had a heart of gold, a solid handshake, a listening ear and a genuine smile ! Many great memories created and many hearts hurt over this loss. May God wrap his arms around the family and friends as they try and make sense of this tragedy. Until the next time I see you, I will never forget you always saying, " C'MON!!! " followed by a hearty pat to the back and a flash of that wonderful smile. Miss you today, tomorrow and always my friend.

“ I have only know Jason since February but he has made a huge impact on my life. I have so many memories in such a short amount of time. Everything from him getting mad at me for being "that mom" at sporting events, to walking hand and hand along Lake Huron, to last weekend when we traveled through the Tunnel of Trees together. Pat, Chris, and especially his niece and nephew, he loved you all. Each time he told a story about the kids he smiled ear to ear :) I just listened and smiled too because I could see that glitter in his eyes each time.

My time with Jason was very limited but I will never forget him. I send my deepest sympathies to all of his family and friends. You are all in my thoughts and prayers as Jason rests in paradise.
