“ Ang, I am so sorry for your loss. Even though I only had the chance to know him a little more than a year, I knew he was a special person with a great smile and a zest for life. He would walk behind my desk at work to see you in your office, to tell you he had lunch waiting in the lunchroom or something. He brightened up some workdays with his laughs and personality. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families during this difficult time. Cindy

“ We didn't have a chance to spend a lot of time together, however, Jay's bright smile and positive attitude was always the first attribute one noticed. The number of friends and their love for him was obvious when he would bring his friends to Vision Lanes. Jason, we will miss seeing you at Vision Lanes. Angie, we will look forward to seeing you soon and our prayers and thoughts will be with you. Your Friends Steven and Lisa Klein

“ I only know Jason through my nephew, Christian Diedirich. Jason was just there, around the house on holidays at the home of my sister Theresa, and on other happy occasions. I remember him to say hello to... along with his wife, Angela. I remember too he always had a smile on his face and I could tell he was a good man with a good heart. My prayers are with all of his family, friends and loved ones, and a special hug for his wife, Angela. He will be missed. Sincerely, Nancy Casillas Saint Clair, Michigan

“ To the families of Jason & Angela Chappell. Words cannot say what I am feeling right now. Since I was 14 years old, Jason has been a huge part of my life. I am proud to say that I am who I am because of him. I am better for having had the opportunity to know and love him. There is a huge void in my heart that can only filled by his presence. Then I think that my pain is only a percentage of what all of you must be feeling. When I try to put myself in Angela's shoes, my heart sinks & I begin to cry. To Jason I say this, " I love you more than you have ever known. A dear friend and a brother of whom I am very proud and of whom I will think about and miss every day for the rest of my life. Rest in peace my brother, I love you!" To both families, I am here for all of you day or night. Please don't be affraid to call me for anything. Christian

“ Jason, you are going to be sorely missed. Luckily, I had the chance to visit with you and Angie recently at Michael's wedding and the suprise party Christian gave for Terrie. It was such a pleasure to see you and the "Gang" all grown up to become such fine, upstanding, young men. The "Gang": Jason Chappell, Miguel Cavosos, Kenny French, Mike Carrol, Jerry Haygi, Mike Diedrich and Christian Diedrich. The way you fellas used to be able to eat! I cannot count the days and evenings you stayed in my home while you were growing up. Even when I was bawling out you fellas for some misdemeanor, Jason's smile and sparkling eyes made it very difficult to remain angry. Such a dynamic personality you had. Jason, you were always here to support my sons, Michael and Christian and my daughter, Adrienne. You were always ready to lend a hand when needed. I know your passing is going to leave a giant hole in many hearts. My prayers go out to your wife, Angie and your family.

“ I pray that the Lord will comfort you Angela, Miguel, all of his family and friends. Jason was like a son to me so I lost more then a friend. I will never forget all the times that we have spent together and I cherish each memory that I have. Jay will be missed beyond any description that I could possibly convey. He taught me many things with his zeal for life and adventure. He truly was the best friend that a person could possibly have. I love you all and Jay forever. Keith
