

Jason R. Warhus

May 19, 1980 - March 2, 2026

Jason Robert Warhus, son of Robert and Janice Warhus, age 45, suddenly passed away on March 2, 2026. Jason was born on May 19, 1980 in Rochester, Michigan. Jason held a dealer position at MGM Grand Casino in Detroit, where he cultivated quality relationships with many coworkers. Jason loved many things, disc golf was one of them, but Jason's greatest love was his daughter, Kennedy Jaymes Warhus. He always wanted more time with her.

His second love was his beloved fiancé, Rachel Loveday. They, too, met at MGM. Jason, along with Rachel, created plans for investments in real estate, this entailed Jason also studying to become a home inspector. Unfortunately, those plans were cut short on Monday, March 2, 2026. Jason was preceded in death by his grandparents, Gabriel and Emily Grych.

“ I knew Jayham / Jason from games. We didn't know each other for long, but he brought warmth and positivity to everyone around him. A few months ago I lost my mother, and one of the reasons I kept opening this game was the positive vibes Jay always shared. His dad jokes, his spirit, his trivia games and his kindness made a real difference in our alliance and even across the server. I hope the family is given comfort during this difficult time. Om Jay Ganteng, thank you for the memories. You will be missed. Rest in peace, fly high 🕊️🕊️

“ Jason aka Jaywar is our gaming buddy in our group. He's made so many of us laugh and have made so many friends in our online community. For over a year we saw so many of his jokes. He loved his fiancé, family and his cats. Our community will not be the same without him. He was like a brother to us. Thank you for all the good laughs Jay. 1227 misses you.

“ Honestly cannot believe this news and I'm so sorry for the loss. I knew Jason when I was a freshman in college at Wayne State. He was a bar back and I was a bartender at Good Life Lounge. I was so nervous starting there- as I was one of the youngest bartenders. Jason was the first person who was really nice to me. He helped me out and made me feel comfortable. We were friends long after I left there and graduated school. I will never forget his kindness and his friendship.
