“ Joe and family, My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I would like to share a poem someone shared with me. It was inspired by an Eskimo Legend. Perhaps they are not stars but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. God Bless.

“ Moma Jayne, May God bless your soul. I will miss her pleasant smile and her peaceful presence. I was blessed to have her in my life as a coworker, as a friend and as a daughter and sister. Jayne was also like a mom to me and thats why I always used to call her Moma Jayne. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. I will rembmer you during my daily rosary prayer. “ I have such wonderful memories of Mom K. I will never forget on one of her visits out here, we went to lunch and as we Washintonians do, we use tarter sauce to dip our fries into. She starred at me eating for the longest time, and then finally asked, what was I doing? Shocked that she had never tried tarter sauce on her fries, she tried it. And was amazed that she liked it. We all laughed. What I loved most about Mom was that I call call her anytime and just talk about whatever. She was so easy to talk to. She is at peace and am thankful to have had her presence in my life. xoxo Shaun
