“ I have so many great memories it's hard to pick just one. Jayson was always a big kid at heart, not unlike myself, so that made for many a fun time when we would get together. Our kids were close enough in age that they would play together whenever we got together to hang out. I can remember one evening they were driving us crazy wanting us to play with them but after a long week we just wanted to have a minute and a cold drink to ourselves. Unheard of with kids, believe me. After much nagging Jayson said those kids are always harassing us let's go annoy them for a change and he put on a ski mask and picked up a nerf gun. We both snuck around the house and collected all there weapons then dressed in black with our ski masks and weapons we creeped into the living room and attacked them! They didn't know what to think, we all laughed so hard and everyone had a great time just cutting up having fun. I probably have enough stories of his antics I could write a very hilarious memoir on his behalf. Like the time he locked himself out of his car and having a wide array of suitable tools and items at his disposal he somehow settled on my brand new 75$ umbrella to try and open the car door! I was a little upset at him for that one but God love him that was Jayson. If there was one thing he was skilled at it was improve on the fly, but that would lead us into another story.

“ My brother your smile, laugh, love of family and positive outlook on life were your greatest attributions. Your children are your legacy and can never doubt your love and pride for them. As you sit with mom, grandma and dad may you look down and see how much you were loved. I miss you more than I can say. Love your sister.
