

Jeanne Biafora

June 21, 1953 - June 18, 2020

Jean (Jeanne) Ann Biafora, age 66, passed away on June 18, 2020 in her home in Royal Oak, MI.

Jeanne was born in Detroit, MI on June 21, 1953, daughter of Eugene and Aeriellia Swartz. She worked for many years as vice president of a small manufacturing firm before returning to Baker College to earn her bachelor's degree, then starting a new career as a project manager for the Beaumont Foundation. She is survived by her children, Kelley Chatman and Kimberly Biafora; granddaughter, Ava Chatman; brothers, Phillip and Ronald Swartz; and sisters, Janet Corey and Patricia (Sue) Colling.

Anyone who knew Jeanne was taken by her kindness and generosity, her patience and grace, her strength of spirit. She was tremendously creative and talented and excelled at home improvement projects and interior design, arts and crafts, and solving any problem you presented her. In her later years, she picked up swing dancing and Reiki practice, easing the physical and emotional pain of others. As a mother and grandmother, she was both a best friend and a beacon of strength and resilience. She inspired her family and those near her to be better, kinder, and more self-reliant. Jeanne's passing has left a great void in their hearts and lives.

Jeanne came into my life when we were 16. As I recall, I introduced her to my brother, Matt. We remained close. She even made my wedding gown, went into labor with Kelli during my last fitting. But she was determined to finish that dress. Took off the dress and off to the hospital I went with her and Matt. Sadly as life events unfolded, we drifted apart. I feel grateful to have know her. and am proud of both Kelli and Kimberly for the wonderful women they have become. All our love, Aunt Claire and Uncle Andy.

“ We met Jeannie at Mr. B's swing dancing lessons a few years ago. From the first night, we felt like good friends. It was great spending time with her and she was a lot of fun to be around. We'll miss her. So very sorry for the family's sudden loss.

“ Our though and prayers to Kim and Kelly. Jeanne’s your mom, your friend, your confidante. Your mom touched so many lives

Jeanne was such an inspiration to me. She was the coolest person in my growing-up years. I know she had some teenage angst, as we all did. But at that time I did too, so I looked up to her like she was my big sister, since I had to more or less take care of mine.

The time she “babysat” for us when Our parents flew to Uncle Bill’s wedding Was the cats pajamas! I was a tween and she was a bb teenager! I wish we had stayed in contact More as adults, we lived so close to each other. She was so kind, generous, and loving. Regretfully, I didn’t tell her.

So during this strange time we’re in, I want to tell you guys- Sue, Ron, Phil, and Janet- how important you all are

Your family was the one place I would want to be with. Loads of fun. I’d listen to your mom’s fascinating stories. My favorite Aunt. And I did tell her that later in life. She’d always make me laugh, along with your dad - who’d always have a beer and a joke for my hubby

Phil, my sidekick in crime. You always included me. We managed to have a lot of fun without getting in too much trouble. I’m sure the older cousin boys were more fun, but you always included me

Sweet Janet (yes, you are) and carol had each other, so I got to hang with the big kids!

Ron, you were always the smartest guy ever. I was always a little ashamed I didn’t perfect my sign. Thank you for being so patient with me. I’d hit myself on the head when I finally got your point. Thank you for being so understanding

And dear Sue. You were already grown when I was just coming of age. So fun, boisterous, and confident. I was a little intimidated. As

We got older, I so see your soft and caring side. We're probably more alike than I knew. Tough on the outside. I know how hard you must as suffered with your lost kids, and multiple times. After all these years my first impressions we're probably right: you are so strong, and now such an inspiration to me

Thank you Swartz Fam, for being such an important part of my life. Loosing Jeanne really hit close to home, and didn't want to waste anymore time to tell you how cherished you all are while we're tall still here on this wacky planet

*Love you
Cousin Kathy*

“ We are deeply saddened by the loss of your mother and your beloved friend, Jeanne. She touched so many people lives in a loving, positive manner, and fun memories were made to treasure. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. Words cannot begin to express the sadness you are feeling right now and how difficult this is to go through, just know that we are here for you and only a phone call away. Our hearts and thoughts are with you. Aunt Veronica and Uncle Greg

“ Jeanne's laughter and sense of humor brought joy to even the most mundane moments of office life. She didn't like to see the people around her sweat the small stuff. She was a great listener. I sat next to Jeanne for about a year at Beaumont and sometimes it felt like we were on our own little island in a sea of cubicles. We shared so much with each other during that time. I wish I had let her know how much I appreciated her. I admired her vibrant, enthusiastic spirit but also her strength and tenacity. We are all going to miss Jeanne so much. But what I really want to say is this: Jeanne adored every moment she spent with her family, even the hard ones, and she absolutely treasured having Ava in her life. She was always so excited to tell me about the latest vacation they had planned, cake they made together, or funny moment that had happened over dinner the night before. I know her love will always shine down on them.

“ I graduated with Jeanne. I knew of her in high school but I am not sure if she knew who I was. This hit me really hard for some reason. maybe because she was my graduating class. I remember her because she had a great smile. I still remember her senior picture in the yearbook which I still have. I looked in the book and it's just the way I rememberd her. RIP Jean.

“ I worked with Jeanne for a little over a year at Beaumont, she did my new hire orientation and was my goto person for everything when I first started. She always made a point to ask me how my weekend was or my day...she was genuinely interested in the answer. We will feel her loss at Beaumont for quite some time. I am sending love to her family during this awful time.
