

Jean L. Walker

August 8, 1951 - August 22, 2022

Jean Louise Walker, age 71, of Madison Heights, passed away on August 22, 2022 while visiting Gatlinburg, TN, one of her favorite vacation destinations.

Beloved wife of Dennis Walker. Loving mother of Patricia (Craig) Bill and Dennis "Scott" (fiancée Lisa Good) Walker. Proud grandmother of Cassandra Bill, Caleigh Bill, Seth Walker, and Alana Walker. Dear sister of Patricia (William) Winn and James "Jay" Johns.

Jean was a resident of South Oakland County for 47 years, and previous to that, Warren. She was semi-retired from MCM Fixture Co. in Hazel Park, where she had worked for 38 years as office manager and bookkeeper. Outside of work, she greatly enjoyed making porcelain dolls and serving her community. She was very active as a leader in the Girl Scouts and taught Sunday School at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Royal Oak.

Jean was simply there for everyone. She was like a mother to all who were lucky enough to cross her path. She was deeply loved and will be dearly missed.

“ I can not put into words how much Jean meant to me, and everyone that she met. Whether you saw her twice a year, or every day, she was there with a smile and a conversation. I will treasure the conversations that I had with her over the years...usually about her grandchildren and her family. My heartfelt condolences to Dennis, and her entire family. Super Nana will live on in the hearts and minds of all who knew her.
