“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Jean J. Williams. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. Luke 23:43; John 11:11, 43-44; jw.org.

“ It seems as if it was just yesterday when Aunt Jean took me to the Riverland Theater to see Mary Poppins! Hard to believe that was nearly 40 years ago. I always enjoyed my overnights on Piccadilly. I am happy for the fond memories of her kindness and can-do attitude; nothing ever seemed to fluster Aunt Jean. I can only hope to be as strong as she has been over the years. I can also not say enough about the fine example of companionship she and Uncle John have shown me. Their commitment to one another has been incredible! She has always been very special to me and I will miss her dearly. Tina
