“ I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of an old childhood and high school friend. I grew up a couple of blocks from Jeff his close friends called him "Ziggy". We would play hacky-sack, tag football, chase around the neighborhood and other games during our youth. Jeff was always known as one of the fastest runners in our neighborhood...if not the fastest. I always had expected great things from Jeff. He was such a smart and talented person. He hobbied with a lead guitar and loved the Star Wars films. I will always have my wonderful childhood memories of him, as my good friend. Rest in peace, my pal.
