

Jennifer Cortez

January 1, 1970 - January 3, 2026

Jennifer Cortez, 56, entered into eternal rest on January 3rd, 2026, following a brave battle with Huntington's Disease.

Born on January 1, 1970, she was a graduate of Romulus High School and attended Kansas State University. A patriot at heart, she joined the United States Army shortly after high school. Following her medical discharge, she continued her lifetime commitment to helping others, training as an EMT and working in Hospice care before moving into management roles.

Above all, she was a dedicated mother. She led with love and a strong moral compass, always teaching her sons the value of justice and resilience.

Her playful spirit and kind heart were evident to all who knew her. She was passionate about her faith and found her greatest happiness in music, dancing, and the company of her children and grandchildren.

She leaves behind a legacy of strength in her three sons: Alon Jones and his wife Meranda; Dontez Jones and his wife Johnna; and Antonio Cortez. She will be deeply missed by her grandchildren, Gabriel, Nola, and Dontez Jr.

“ On behalf of the Cadena Family our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your beautiful Mother. I remember Jenny as a little girl so beautiful with her little pigtails. She was so loved by her grandparents and her family. Praying for God’s comfort and peace. Psalm 34:18 The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
