“ Dear Mr. Palmer, my wife was driving on 19 mile road on the way to pick me up from work. She noticed the accident and told me about it. So sorry for the loss of your precious wife. A lot of nice things have been written here about her. We wish to comfort you with the Bible's hope, which is what has comforted us when we have lost loved ones to death. In the Bible, death is called an enemy at I Corinthians 15:26. God doesn't take our loved ones away from us because He is the God of Love I John 4:8. Ecclesiastes 9:11 says that "unexpected events overtake us all." Unfortunately sometimes these unexpected events take our loved ones away from us. But there is hope to see our loved ones again, just like you hope to. Jesus promises you and I that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out to a resurrection" John 5:28,29. Under God's Kingdom, Jesus will unite us with our loved ones who will be alive again, and never have to die again. At Revelation 21:4, God promises that He will, "wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." God understands your pain, because He lost His Son to death. My wife and I can sympathize with your pain because we have lost loved ones too. We hope this will bring you comfort and hope that will help you to cope with the loss of your precious wife Jennifer. Sincerely, the Duda family at zip9699@comcast.net

“ Jenny, how do you say goodbye to someone you love so much. You are more than a friend, you are family. You have touched the lives of so many people and left a permanent imprint. I am still unable to believe this tragedy has happened to someone who loves others more than herself, to someone who has done more good in this world than bad. Jennifer Ann Palmer you always made things that were unbearable, overwhelming and intolerable - bearable, accepting and tolerable. I love you so much.

“ I love you and already miss you so very much hun. There is no pain that can compare to how I feel. I wish we could of talked just for a second after we hit just so I could be the last voice and person you see but what is so nice is what we last said to eachother and that was " I love you Christopher " and " I love you Jennifer ". I just wish It wasn't good bye. Gosh I miss you so much. I'm hoping I'll wake up from a coma or very bad dream and you come walk in the door and I kiss you on those soft lips and ask how your day was but It seems God must need you with him more cause you were perfect here. You believed in me when I was at my lowest low and helped show me the real highs of life. I couldn't ask for more in a women, not one bit. Jennifer even though you left here before me I'll make it there because you light my darkness with your sunshine to the right road. The road that will one day lead back to you. Till then my Jennybean Love You.....Christopher Scott Palmer..

“ Jennifer Ann how you brought sunshine into our lives with that beautiful smile. Not only were you my sister my friend your my heart i love you with all my heart and soul. I don't know what I'll ever do without you here with me. I will always remember all the silly things we've done. How you took care of Lexi and Jacob like they were your own. They miss you dearly! They will always be reminded of how much aunt Jen Jen loved and cherished them. Thank you Jenny Ann! I love and miss you so much!

“ I had the pleasure of training Jen when she first came to Title Source and working with her for several months afterward. We talked almost every day about everything and nothing. I will miss her dearly. I am glad that I made a friend in her and will cherish our friendship! My heart is truly saddened for her new husband, whom she loved deeply, and her family. Much love from TSI!

“ It saddens my heart to walk by your desk and not be able to see you sitting there smiling. You brought a little extra joy with you to work each day and you will be greatly missed. One thing that Jenn did tell me was that she was happier now than she had ever been in her life, and she was so looking forward to her new life as a mother and a wife. I will miss our little meetings where we would vent and laugh, I am thankful I had the chance to meet such a great person.....

“ Jen was a sweetheart, and she loved to send funny pictures around the office to give us a laugh. We'll miss her but are grateful for the time we got to know and laugh with her. May you--Jennifer's friends and family--find comfort in the embrace of our Father, who knows our grieving hearts and has a hope for us all beyond what we can see. Life is short even for the oldest of us, but love is eternal. Shalom and God bless.

“ Dear Family of Jennifer Palmer: I did not have the pleasure of knowing Jennifer personally, but we are all a family here at Title Source, and what she brings to this family as a person and a team member will be greatly missed. I too, have lost loved ones both parents and a brother, so even though I don't know exactly what you all are feeling personally, I do know the feeling of losing someone dear to you. Be comforted in this hour, and remember all of the beautiful things about her that you loved... My family and I will be praying for your peace.

“ Dear Palmer family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Jennifer Palmer. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest. Mrs. Higgins
