

Jeremy David Flores

June 15, 1983 - January 18, 2017

Jeremy Flores went home to heaven on January 18th, 2017. He was born in Rochester Hills, Michigan on June 15th 1983. Beloved son of Karen and Brian Kirby and James Flores. Loving father of "JJ" Jeremiah Raymond Drada. Dear brother of Jason Fournier, Joshua (Nevalyn) Fournier, and Jenelle (Andrew) Drada and pseudo sister Lindsay (Joshua) Blum. Jeremy was the grandson of Betty and Elmer Holz and predeceased by beloved grandmother Amada Flores, and great grandparents: Chester and Lucile Skiera. He was the amazing uncle to Autumn, Avah, Brielle, Joshua, Luke, foster nieces and nephews and family friends. Beloved nephew of Lisa (Peter) Ishioka (his second mom), Cheryl Wormsbacher, Mark (Jeanette) Holz, Beverly (Patrick) Welch and Julie (Ronald) Sliwinski and had several loving cousins. Jeremy was an incredibly talented man who played many instruments and was an artist. He had a passion for knowledge, fishing, animals, and helping others. Jeremy loved to make people laugh and smile and spending time with family. Jeremy was a machinist who enjoyed carpentry and recently earned certification in robotics. He was a joyful, outgoing, and incredibly kind man who will be missed by many family members and friends. Visitation Saturday from 3:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., and Sunday from 12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. His funeral service is Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the Wm. “ He was a very silly outgoing man that did what he felt was right. Never cared about the "POPULAR" However did things to help others. He was a very unique individual and will be missed by many. My condolences to all the family. To the child we made together may you rest knowing he loved you as well as I. You are all in my prayers.

“ There just aren't 'words' that can bring comfort to each of you in this loss. I know how Jeremy was loved; we have known him and prayed for him now for what seems like many years. For Lisa this loss could be catastrophic, as I know of your heart for this boy/man.

Please know that those of us who know you and love you are praying for you. God, in His mercy, has given each of us who confess His name as Savior, a full pardon. Lisa, this loss does not have to consume you....it will only feel that way. Your Heavenly Father has overwhelming love and infinite grace to sustain you and even to grow your compassion and restore your joy.

You always tried so hard to rescue this one you love so much. Now he is rescued. Rest in the sure and certain hope you have in Jesus Christ.

Isaiah 61:3

...to grant to those who mourn in Zion--to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.

God will glorify Himself through you this day, Lisa.

“ I am soooooo deeply sorry for your loss. I've been acquainted with Jeremy through his Aunt Lisa, who i have worked with for 22 years. I've watched Karen's children grow up.

I was stunned and numb when i received the news that this young man had gone on to glory so soon.

There is no worse blow in life than to lose someone you love. i trust the God of ALL flesh will prove Himself Big in your lives and you'll receive the tender comfort of the Holy Spirit.

Please do draw comfort in the knowledge that 'others' do care and are here for you. You are loved.

“ In highschool he was such an outgoing unique person... it seemed that everyone who knew him liked him. Not just because he was outgoing... but because he genuinely showed compassion to those around him no matter how others might judge him.

I hope for his family and friends that the good memories of him serve as a beacon of light to guide them out of these dark days.

“ My condolences to the family. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief and helplessness that can result from the death of a loved one. May you find comfort in knowing that God promises that the dead will live again.-Isaiah 26:19
