

Jerome "Jerry" Carter Sr.

January 16, 1965 - April 9, 2017

Jerome "Jerry" D. Carter Sr., age 52, passed away in Clinton Township on April 9, 2017. Jerry was born to Joyce and the late James Carter, Sr. on January 16, 1965 in Detroit. He grew up in Utica and later graduated from Utica High School in 1983. Jerry went on to pursue his pilot's license and began flight school coursework.

He married the love of his life, Theresa, on September 1, 1989 at St. Lawrence of Utica. Shortly after, the two moved to Imlay City and started a family. The two shared over 27 years filled with many joys, laughter, and love. Jerry was a hard-working and dedicated Plant manager for many years and recently began enjoying a retirement lifestyle.

Jerry was downright talented with both his head and hands- from brake jobs to remodeling. Mechanical and skilled work just came easy for him. He spent a great deal of time collecting and tinkering with his antique model trains and cars, big and small.

In his leisure time, Jerry would regularly travel with his family to Las Vegas to play the slots and see the sights. He always looked forward to opportunities to whisk his mom away for some fun times around the local casinos. The Carter family also traveled to warmer destinations such as Disney, Puerto Rico, and tropical cruises where they enjoyed the sun and wonderful meals.

Beloved husband of Theresa; Loving father of Geralyn (Bryce Grumley) and Jerome Jr. (Shelby Webb); dear son of Joyce and the late James Sr.; brother to James Jr. (Theresa), Janice (John) Schwartz, and Jeffrey (Nancy); son-in-law to Joan Baker and the late George Baker Jr.; brother-in-law to Kevin Baker; god father to Kimberly and Jennifer; he is also survived by many nieces and nephews; he is also survived by his trusted canine companions: Aurora and Cooper, as well as grand-dogs, Frankie and Pilot.
