“ Jerome is safely at home in heaven with the rest of the Bradys....telling stories by the bonfire with a keg close at hand. May his smiling face provide you solace in the days ahead.

“ If words could comfort you, I would say them. But they don't. Yet know that you are loved by many . . . and by a God who is loving and compassionate. . .and has welcomed your Dad home. My memory of your father was when I was invited to spend a summer weekend at the cottage.. . between the parade, the tractor pull and the fireworks, it was a wonderful time. I was surprised that your Dad let me ride his motorcycle, since I was a new rider myself. Bless his heart for trusting me! He was a man of great faith. . .on many levels!

“ I'm proud to say that Jerry was my fathers best friend.He was the brother that my Dad never had.He was also my good friend and helped shape me into the man that I am today. Jerry was a man of integrity and he loved his family.The best compliment that I can give Jerry is that he was a true "Mans Man".He was also a helluva lot of fun!We enjoyed alot of adventures in Wyoming,the UP and Northern Michigan. While we are extremely sad, I know two guys in Heaven right now that are sipping on Manhattens and catching up.Heaven just became a better place and never will be the same!God Bless You Jerry and thank you for everything.

“ Our favorite memory is when Jerry proudly announced "I couldn't have asked for a better son-in-law"! Jerry really meant it. Our other favorite is his smile and laughter as we sat at the dining room table and I read a story aloud. I won't mention the books title; it did bring enjoyment to everyone! And don't forget that famous quote... "you have to smarter then the dog to teach em" We really miss him.
