“ Jerry was a wonderful, generous, giving and loving brother-in-law to my husband and myself and uncle to our two sons, Matt and Mike.

Even though he endured much pain and illness in his lifetime, his wonderful spirit and attitude carried him through even the most debilitating circumstances. His focus, concern and efforts were always directed towards everyone he knew rather than himself and he made sure everyone else was taken care of and that their needs were being met even when he didn't feel well. We will always admire him for being able to smile, laugh, and "be in the moment" despite his physical difficulties.

For us, this saying from Elisabeth Kübler-Ross sums up perfectly who Jerry was: "The most beautiful people we have known are those who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths.

These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen." - Elisabeth Kübler-Ross, Psychiatrist and Author

Jerry will always be remembered with love and he will never be forgotten. Our family has been truly blessed to have had him in our lives.

“ Sorry I was unable to get to Jerry's Funeral. Jerry was a great guy and always had a smile on his face whenever I saw him. I will miss him and Cheryl at our Christmas Dinners that Pete Garrisi started years ago. I am truly sorry for your loss. Ken Semelsberger

“ A wonderful,funny,witty brother-in-law who I loved very much. He was so good to my twin sister Cheryl. Also quite an effective and convincing prankster. Jerry endured a lot of pain over many years,however he forged ahead! I will miss his humorous anecdotes,and funny stories. He made me laugh each and every time. When family gathered together we would encourage him to repeat the same story and we would laugh again. Please pray for my sister Cheryl and her surviving family members to stay positive and enjoy our existence!!!

“ Cheryl, Kelly and Family,
You have our deepest condolence, and prayers. He will be missed.
From the time we moved into the neighborhood we enjoyed watching Jerry work on his lawn. He seemed to love to do that and he always took wonderful care of it. Now he will enjoy the beautiful gardens of heaven. Our hearts go out to all of you. Love Marie,
