“ Our favorite memory of Jerry and Kathy was when we visited Jerry and Sue in Florida the winter of 1991 when our son was 21 months old. Both Jerry Sr and Jerry Jr enjoyed playing cars with our son across the floor and introducing him to mini Oreo cookies, that were new at the time. Tommy loved them because they fit in his hand perfectly. Also, Jerry and Kathy bought our son a pink pig, about 12 inches long that when you put batteries in its tummy, it walked, grunted and the nose moved in and out a little. The pink furry pig was a huge hit, and our son, almost 18 now, still has it on top of his dresser. Jerry and Kathy were great with kids, and also with their children's friends; they were just enjoyable to be around. Jerry Sr will be missed, but will live in our hearts forever, together with our cherished memories. With love, Roy, Nancy, Tom and Julia Williams

“ I want to send all of you my sincere condolences in the loss of your dear loved one Jerome. The Bible holds out a real hope for our loved ones that we lose to death. God is stronger than our enemy death and he promises to bring it to nothing. 1Corinthians 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises that our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death can have the hope of living again. Isaiah 26:19b "For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth." What a comforting hope we have to see our loved ones again. Sincerely, India
